Chamomile

V1

I wish you'd love me like chamomile
Take me to your safe place now
I wish you'd hold me so carefully
But my head's too far up in the clouds
And i would take your hand in mine
And i would smile and pretend it's alright

I notice when you stare off to space
I notice when you look far away
For something that's out there
I keep hoping that you'll come back the same
But for now all that i ask is that you don't run too far away
Away
Away

V2

And the light are blinding
I hope you'll see again
With the purple findings
That will take a second chance
It's the same movie scene
Over and over in my head
And it's poor Bill and poor you
Stuck in the same yellow town

CH2

I notice when you stare off to space
I notice when you look far away
For something that's out there
I keep hoping that you'll come back the same
Away

Bridge (CHORDS 2X)

Just a second

To spend some time with you

I will be there

Right by your side ooo

CH3 (bridge groove)

I notice when you stare off to space

I notice when you look far away

For something that's out there

I keep hoping that you'll come back the same

But for now all that i ask is that you don't run too far away

Invisible Creatures

It feels like I'm fighting a war inside my head
The pain is never ending trapped here with a creature in my bed

I don't want to give up another time
It's when my breath is short and my eyes are wide
I just wanna have a good time
Without seeing stars and going blind

Not to be a pessimist but I don't know if I will make it in this big wide world
I'm scared
This anxiety is really getting to me
This green eyed monster is eating a hole from deep inside of me
Imagine a world like that
Invisible creatures
Invisible creatures
Imagine the times like that
Invisible creatures
Invisible creatures

And there used to be spark in my eyes when I was happy
And that sparkle would die the first time I was suddenly laughing
And you were laughing at me

And I hate that I'm afraid I hate the feeling that I hide away
And my poor knees shake
And with every thought i have i try to stay so strong outside for you i'm trying

Not to be a pessimist but I don't know if I will make it in this big wide world
I'm scared
This anxiety is really getting to me
This green eyed monster is eating a hole from deep inside of me
Imagine a world like that
Invisible creatures
Invisible creatures
Imagine the times like that
Invisible creatures

Mirror mirror

(Acapella with clapping)

Mirror mirror on the door
Will I forget what was much more Than just silly child's play
magic swords and dinosaurs

Mirror mirror on the door
Will I forget what was much more
Than just silly child's play magic swords and dinosaurs (Band in)

A Amaj7
And in her cloudless dreams she'd dance from
A Amaj7
key to key with kings and queens

A Amaj7
Now in her defining dreams she
A Amaj7
starts to grasp just how to see yet
A Amaj7
she's too small and young to know
D Dm A A maj7
That dark clouds don't just come and go.

D
Mirror mirror on the door
Will i forget what was much more
Than just silly child's play
magic swords and dinosaurs

Mirror mirror on the door
Will i forget what was much more
Than just silly child's play
magic swords and dinosaurs

A Amaj7
Now we dance with lucid dreams.
A Amaj7
in these fantasies we twirl with
A Amaj7
realistic things
A Amaj7
Now we wonder what sleep means

D Dmaj7
Is there too much independence?
D Dmaj7
We're not so clueless and small anymore
D Dmaj7
maybe we see the world and sing
D Dmaj7
while the rain pours

C Cmaj7
As years go by acceptance grows.
C Cmaj7
don't need to stand on tippy-toes,
C Cmaj7
to reach what seems so far away,
Dm G
at least we know the clouds are here to stay
